All My 86 Lobos by Cedric Edwards

November 2024 strip:

All My 86 Lobos

This comic strip is based on the soap opera, "All My Children", and contains characters which may or may not be familiar to many of you.

The setting is the fictional town of Lashley, Texas, where a group of characters seek to take over and run the community. Let's see what's going on with some of these individuals:

Scene: The Lashley city jail, where resides another new character...

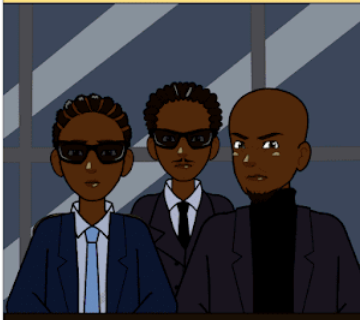

I've been in here long enough. I've sent a message to my gang that it's time. Time for me to get my revenge.

Revenge on the one who put me in here...yes.....sweet revenge.....on the so-called "boss" of Lashley....

Jon Cost!!!

Meanwhile, in another part of town, a group of individuals hold a meeting...

I received a message from "Fleetwood". He says it's time to spring him.

That's fine. I was beginning to worry. As long as he remembers who's the boss of this outfit, things will go smoothly.

And how smoothly? Well, that's up to Jon Cost!

What will happen next? Tune in next time!

Finds of historical interest from yesterday's airboat rockhunt. Our guide says that these are bricks from Robson's Castle that was flooded and left in ruin in 1869 and subsequently razed in the 1880's. Evidently much of the building material washed or was pushed into the river. Peter's, the darker creek-stained brick, was found south of I10. Mine, the lighter colored brick, was found about a mile downstream from the historic site. Mortar is evident on the reverse side of Peter's and on the side of mine.

Today has been a long, emotional day. Mark and I got up at 5:30 am to get ready to head to Marshall for his friend Mike's funeral. It was a very unexpected death and it's hard to even wrap our heads around. Mark has known him from the golf industry I think 30ish years.

But, since we were in East Texas, I decided to not even let my best friend Angie Clark White know I was in town, and instead figured out where her office was in Gladewater and snuck in totally unannounced. There were some tears and a good but short visit before we headed back.

It was my monthly class night at our local wine bar in Mansfield, so I quickly gathered my things once we got home, and then met with my amazing group of friends to learn about some relaxing oils and make some Epsom salts bath salts. I really cherish these class times because I learn as much as I teach each time. Always lots of good laughs and I wouldn't trade it for anything.

I have no idea what is in store for our nation the next four years, but I do know that my God is sovereign, and everything will be used for his good and his glory. 🙏🙏🙏🙏

It was a fun and B U S Y birthday weekend! My parents came into town on Amtrak to help us celebrate a few birthdays.

Friday night we celebrated Aksel's 11th bday (it was in June, but my parents weren't able to come visit then so he's been patiently waiting until we could all go together) at his fav restaurant, Flying Fish. He was SO happy!!

We also agreed to pet sit over the weekend for our friend's sweet pup, Duchess. We love Duchy...and Aksel was so excited to take care of her again. She lives 8 mins from our house, so it was alot of driving back and forth between Osher and my parents at our house or hanging out/sleeping with Duchy at her house. 😊

Saturday afternoon, I took my mom to a baby shower in Fort Worth, for a Longview friend's daughter. It was nice for me to see a few Longview friends.

Saturday night, we celebrated my birthday at Walloons. Everything was amazing - the service, the food, the ambiance, etc. Our waitress surprised me with a chocolate panna cotta for dessert...and then, a special surprise, Aksel got one too for his birthday. Perfect way to the end the night.

Sunday was my actual birthday so I opened a few gifts....they were all very appreciated, but my favorite was a Kendra Scott necklace that Aksel bought with his pet sitting money for me. We have a friend who has the same necklace. He remembered I told our friend how much I liked her necklace, so he wanted to buy one for me too. ❤️ Osher didn't buy me anything, BUT he spent all of last week leveling out the side of our house with sand and stones. It was on a super crazy slant and now we can easily walk to the AC unit, when needed. Looks great! After we dropped off my parents at the Amtrak, I decided to cash in my birthday queso and taco at Torchy's Tacos for lunch. Delish as always....and the afternoon 'rita really hit the spot. 😊

BUT, the very BEST part of the weekend was just having my parents in town to celebrate. Most people don't know that my dad was in a terrible car accident the day before my birthday last year. So, of course, we didn't celebrate my birthday (or anything else) last year. We are so blessed that he somehow survived it, and with amazing doctors and lots of physical therapy, he's back to normal this year. BEST BIRTHDAY WISH EVER! ❤️👉👈🙏

This morning, I got the babies up and let them pick their own clothes. Maddie picked a cute little T-shirt and blue Jean shorts. Millie picked a dress. They definitely have different personalities. I went to work for a little while and the babies took a nap, and when Katie got them up, this is what I see. Now she gets a pass for it being game day, but every time the children are dressed differently, I think it bothers Katie's OCD. Lol. 🙄

MAKE Wellness!!!

Only 1 day until we launch our new company! It's getting real....
I'm sure you have seen the synthetic lab made peptide shots everyone is taking.
This wellness company is pioneering an ALL NATURAL PEPTIDE ...NO SYNTHETIC SHOTS!

What does a peptide do? 🌟
It communicates with your cells and instructs them to do a specific function (turn this up, turn this down, turn this on or off).
🌟 THEY ARE LIFE CHANGING.

There's a reason they are injectable only, and that's because they are so fragile there hasn't been a method of delivering them orally in a way that can survive the gut....

UNTIL NOW 🌟

YOU, like myself, could be one of the FIRST people to have access to the ONE and ONLY NATURAL & ORAL peptide platform with a peptide product for many different functions.

- [x] Ingestible, NOT injectable
- [x] Natural, not synthetic
- [x] Affordable: $50-$120 vs $600?
- [x] Little or no insure for peptides?? No problem
- [x] Potent and able to make it through the digestive system
- [x] Tested and 10 years of human clinical trials?
- [x] Supplement!! NO PHARMA

I would say, "Sign me up; that's a big NO BRAINER!!!" 🌟

What would you say?
If you're interested in the founder opportunity, comment INFO. If you want to hop on my VIP Customer list, comment VIP 🌟

We got rid of the traditional "ick,"

- 🌟 Pre-enrollment: $0
- 🌟 annual fees: $0
- 🌟 monthly purchase requirement: $0

You will have the option to purchase a Founders Box, that contains all 6 products, and a link to share them two weeks before anyone else!

If you know me I rarely join multi-tiered companies. I did Young Living because I love certain oils and Thieves! I did Theorem for hair but unfortunately they went out of business.

After studying and receiving my health certification in 2018-2019 with INN, I became serious into the Health and Wellness of the human body. I FULLY BELIEVE We need to do better for ourselves and NOT rely on the FDA or the government to take care of us because guess what...they aren't looking out for you!!! They will ALWAYS send us to BIG PHARMA.

Watching my son go from scrawny to healthy the right way, natural peptides are the way to go.

JOIN ME IN THIS NEW VENTURE. YOU OWE IT TO YOUR BODY AND TO YOURSELF.

On October 12, 2024 at approximately 8:30 PM, John Stallings passed from this earthly life to go to his eternal rest just three short weeks after he was baptized into Christ for the remission of his sins and just too short weeks after in-home hospice care began. John leaves behind his beloved son and daughter together with many he loved and considered his close family, countless cherished friends, and innumerable families within the community who were blessed by his helping hands. John was a giver, and his legacy of giving will live on in the donation of his body to the science of medical advancement. A memorial and celebration of John's life will be announced shortly. Please join us as we grieve in his leaving and rejoice in his homecoming. We ask that you respect the privacy of his family and those closest to John by withholding any texts or calls until further notice.

I remember being broke for Christmas one year after food shopping and paying the bills and wrote a post dated check to make sure I could provide a good Christmas for my family. I've lived as high and as low as it's possible to go. There were times I'd put $10 worth of gas in my tank and other times $50. I've had $5 to just feed myself and I've also had $200 to go out to eat. I've had a house full of food and times I didn't have any. I've been in stores cashing out with no worries and I've also had to add it up and put things back on the shelf. I've paid my bills in full and I've had to pay them late too. I've given money and I too have had to ask for it. We all have highs and lows in life. Some certainly more than others, but we are all just trying to make it.

No one is better than anyone else and my heart is sad for those people who think that they are. No matter how big your house is, how new your car is, or how much money sits in your bank account - we all bleed red and will eventually fade from this earth. Death has no discrimination and neither should your life.

Be kind to others. We are all here to serve. Stop the power tripping. Your oversized ego won't get you anywhere.

Be humble. And keep faith going.

Very few will actually read this far, but if you're genuine I challenge you to copy. Most won't, because they're the type of people I'm talking about.

👏👏👏 3 yrs ago today, I started a new life in Arlington, scared and unsure but necessary. A new job as a "warehouse coordinator" to now working in "will call" was, no doubt, the best decision I could have made🙏

I am always proud of myself because even on bad days...I've kept going...BUT GOD!! I don't let what others think or say bother me because until u walk a day in my shoes, U have no clue🙏 I am a grateful 9yr domestic violence survivor💜💜...shot 3 times and one still lodged in my lung...GOD IS SO GOOD. I'm still here👏👏👏

Everyday is a blessed day for me because I could have been gone🙏..... Thank you PFGC❤️ for a new start.

All My 86 Lobos by Cedric Edwards

This comic strip is based on the soap opera, "All My Children", and contains characters which may or may not be familiar to many of you.

The setting is the fictional town of Lashley, Texas, where a group of characters seek to take over and run the community. Let's see what's going on with some of these individuals:

Scene: A new television show debuts in Lashley- The Cheri Everett show with guests Sandy Grayson, August Eden, and Katherine Easley.

Good morning to all of my peeps out there- This is the lady herself Cheri and with me are three of my former classmates!

First, we have Sandy. We go all the way back to elementary school. What's up, Sandy?
The sky! Ha ha ha- How are you doing, Cheri?

I make with the jokes, Sandy, not you- My show, remember? Anyway, what are you doing nowadays?
I'm a dentist.

So that's why you're wearing white. For a minute there, I thought you were here to take me away! Ha ha ha!
Cute.

Next, we have my old friend August Eden! Tell them about yourself, August!
Hello everybody, I am a teacher and counselor, and I'm also a cancer survivor!

I think that deserves some applause- how 'bout it, my peeps!
Thank you everyone from the bottom of my heart!

Last but not least, we have my other classmate, and her name is Katherine Easley! Say hello to the world, Kat!
Hello world!!!

So tell me, Katherine, what do you do for a living?
I work for the Parents Television and Media Council.

HA HA HA HA!!! HO HO HO HO!!! HA HA HA HA!!!
Good one!!! HA HA HA!!! Tune in next week when I have on my show classmates who are now hookers and pimps! See ya next time, peeps!!!
